BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

A bit of the music in Nature will be offered by KFI at 8 a.m., with Walter Damrosch at the baton. Nursing as a profession will be discussed over KHJ at 11:30 a.m. During the later hours Columbia's March of Time makes its final farewell in the dramatization of news events (KHJ at 5:30) and running on into the evening, Irvin S. Cobb invites listeners-in "down South" for a laugh or two. (KFI at 6:30.)

These are the high lights of the radio day, along with Joe Rock over KMTR at 8 tonight, fresh from Shanghai with an American's idea of what it's all about over there.

Speaking of fights, here in the home town KNX at 9:45 p.m. is to tap the Hollywood Legion Stadium for the main event between Eddie Murdock and Tommy Herman. Since the Olympic Auditorium has abandoned the broadcasting of fights, fistie fans unquestionably will welcome this offering.

THE TIMES FORUM

The Times Forum this afternoon, over KHJ at 1:30 o'clock, will present Kyle D. Palmer, political writer of The Times, in a pertinent discussion of political events of today; also Dr. Philip M. Lovell, editor of Care of the Body in The Times Sunday Magazine, in his Friday afternoon health talk.

Tomorrow the entire Forum period will be devoted to the first of a series of bridge lessons by Mrs. G. U. Purdy, international authority, in which a full game will be played and explained. This full period presentation is in compliance with the many requests, from those who have been following Mrs. Purdy's brief talks.
