Third and last call! Tonight is the night, the Shrine Auditorium is the place, the show to include all the stars of Radio Station KHJ and the proceeds will be turned over to the Co-ordination Committee for Unemployment Relief, operating under auspices of the City Employees' Association, this association having a list of registered unemployed in Los Angeles.

KHJ promises to outdo any previous entertainment effort. Special acts are in preparation, including episodes for Black and Blue, the famous detectives, and Chandu the magician, the mystery thriller, Raymond Paige and his symphony orchestra, the Bachelors' Quartet, the Bluettes and a vocal ensemble will be heard, also the Beach Boys and their Hawaiian melodies. Such well-known announcers, actors and musicians as Lindsay MacHarrie, Robert Swan, Paul Rickenbacker, Ken Niles, Roger King, Gerald Norton, Frederick Stark, Leigh Harline, Dave Marshall, George Gramlich, William Hargrave, Elvia Allman, Vera Van and Nell Larson are to participate.

The benefit is being held for the purpose of giving the jobless employment at planting flowers before the international Olympic Games. Co-operating in the preparations are the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, the Parent-Teachers' Association and various other civic organizations. Tickets at 50 cents, 75 cents and $1 will be on sale at the Shrine Auditorium box office.

The show will not be broadcast.

The Times Forum period on the air over KHJ at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon will be devoted to a lesson in bridge, given by Mrs. G. U. Purdy, international expert, whose brief talks have aroused much interest. She will outline a game and give instructions as to its playing. In addition she is to answer some pertinent questions of general interest to players, based on her experience as an international expert.
