Norman Lyon of the Los Angeles Realty Board

Roy Stockton, Commander of

Los Angeles Council, American Legion.

C. J. S. Williamson of the Olympic beautification committee of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

World-wide news, 7:15 a.m.

12:30, 5:15 and 10 p.m.

An appeal to the Southland to adorn its vacant lots and gardens for the coming Olympic Games, a half-hour with the United States Army Band at Washington, D. C., and an after-dinner treat listening to St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Choir in a sacred half-hour are but three of the worth-while gifts of radio today.

FEATURES ALL DAY

Trailing along with the above features, why not up with the sun at 8 this morning when the Los Angeles Breakfast Club returns to the air? Billed for "men, for women and for people of all tastes," they promise that this Wednesday morning frolic will be brilliant. Harry A. Wheeler is the guest speaker. He is the man selected by President Hoover to organize the government's unemployment committee and will speak on "The Unemployment Problem." For entertainment: From rollicking Canadian folk songs up to opera and back to Negro spirituals, will be heard. "Les Voyageurs" is the crack singing organization of Canada and is sponsored by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada and by Premier S. F. Tolmie of British Columbia. All of this over KFWB at 8 a.m.

KHJ at 9:30 presents the Wednesday night classic of the air, KOIN's "Isle of Golden Dreams." South Sea melodies ushered in with a background of surging seas.

"THE TIMES" FORUM

The Times Forum, KHJ at 1 p.m., is devoted to the interests of the Olympic Games. Talks will be made by Norman Lyon, chairman of the parks, trees and boulevards committee of the Los Angeles Realty Board, and chairman of the city beautiful committee, who will discuss making of Los Angeles more beautiful; Roy Stockton, Commander of Los Angeles council, American Legion, will urge Legionnaires to gather in their fellows from all parts of the world for the Games here, and C. J. S. Williamson, secretary of the Olympic beautification committee of the Chamber of Commerce, will outline the chamber's program toward the beautification of the city in anticipation of the Games—a movement now in full swing.
