Make Yourself a Job

WITH ED BISHOP
The Idea Hunter

From Peoria, Ill., comes the story of a man who is filling a need that exists in every community. Realizing that high winds were continually blowing out window panes, because the putty had decayed and lost its value as a support, he provided himself with a putty knife and started out. He reasoned with landlords that a stitch in time saved many a window pane, and that an inexpensive putty job was good insurance.

Some simple new idea. Properly broad- cast, may put 1000 men back to work. If you know any idea, actually working, help spread the news by sending full details to Ed Bishop, care of this newspaper. (Los Angeles Times Syndicate)
