

The Idea Hunter

WITH ED BISHOP

A novel new idea has been broadcast from New York to at least several other major cities, combining an article of common use with a popular fad of the day. The creator has merely designed an ordinary glass-covered cocktail tray, and underneath the glass is a simplified form of the marble-pin game that is found throughout many cities today. The cups, into which the player strives to roll the marbles, have certain number values. Also, for further amusement! at parties, there are different suggestions that must be followed, according to the game. Two of the latter are: "Host treats everyone to a smoke," and "Everyone ring 'Sweet Adeline.'" The latter should prove a great help in apartment-houses in the wee small hours of the morning.

If you know of some novel idea, actually being worked, help spread the news by sending full details to Ed Bishop, care of this newspaper. Further information on any idea published here will be given to anyone enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
