

Federal Housing Chief to Be Heard Over KMTR This Evening

Tibbett Will Star Today in 'Rogue Song'

Musical Treat Offered on KFI Broadcast Programs

BY CARROLL NYE
Col. William H. Evans, Federal Housing Administration supervisor for Southern California, will face KMTR's microphone at 7 p.m. today to give an important message to all radio listeners. He is to be interviewed by Charles C. Cohan, real estate editor of The Times, who will quiz Col. Evans on the special benefits to be reaped by real estate dealers through the Federal Housing Act.

Musical treats on today's log are Lawrence Tibbett's program on KFI at 5:30 p.m. and Grace Moore's recital over the same station at 6 p.m. Tibbett will star in a radio revival of his first film success, "The Rogue Song," with Marion Hopkinson, youthful ether actress and operatic student, heading the cast of supporting players.

Miss Moore is offering an all-request program from the N.B.C. studios in Hollywood. Her numbers are "Oh, Dry Those Tears," "Bonjour Susan," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," "Spirit Flower," "Segu Dilla" and "Just a Little Love, a Little Kiss."

Film stars of yesteryear parade before the Hollywood N.B.C. microphones at 9 p.m. when Ben Bernie introduces his Round Table of Reminiscences, with Clara Kimball Young, William Farnum, Bryant Washburn, Viola Dana and Charles Ray as his guests.

TUNING IN ALONG THE AIR LANES

Radiography: Tired of having all his waking hours taken with performances and rehearsals at the old Morosco Theater, where he played leads for years, Gayne Whitman, curly-haired be-mustached announcer for Grace Moore's program, harkened to the call of the movies a few years ago. Despite his recognized ability, he wasn't given much of a break on the screen, so he turned to radio . . . In the title role of "Chandu the Magician," Whitman's facility at characterization found an admirable outlet. His faultless diction makes his announcing a joy to the ear. Gayne's father was an evangelist, but the sawdust trail failed to interest him . . . He donned grease paint as a stock actor in Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis and came to Hollywood in 1913 . . . Is married, has two daughters and collects stamps.

Vitriolic letters have begun to pour in from listeners who were incensed by KHJ's action Sunday in dropping off the network in the midst of the New York Philharmonic concert which marked Arturo Toscanini's debut of the season. KHJ's switchboard went red when the concert was interrupted with an electrical transcription. The operator finally reached the point where she had to pull out all the plugs and let the irate listeners seethe in silence.

Dis and Data: N.B.C. is lining up three promising network features for release in the near future. "Easy Aces," the home-life serial, now on C.B.S., is soon to move to the rival network. Ted Lewis, "Doc" Rockwell and Tim and Irene are to be starred in a new variety show, and Ray Noble's music is slated for February release . . . Dave Heenan, public relations director (press agent) for KHJ, has handed in his resignation and lined up another position . . . A bandit who used a fake police badge to deceive his victims and then committed crimes of robbery, criminal assault, and assault with intent to commit murder, while preying on couples parked by the side of the road, provides the basis for the current "Calling Ali Cars" dramatization over KHJ at 8:30 p.m. . . . An authorized Christian Science lecture will be broadcast over KECA at 12:10 p.m. . . . Do you remember when Leon Belasco played violin in the KFWB orchestra? He now has one of the best bands in New York . . . Gladys Swarthout and John Barclay are co-featured in the Beauty Box Theater presentation of "The Desert Song" over KFI at 7 p.m.
