Radio News Exchange Planned to Foster Better Anglo-American Relations

Broadcasts Scheduled Over C.B.S.

New Feature Will Be Inaugurated February 12

BY CARROLL NYE

An exchange of news and views between the United States and Great Britain—aimed at fostering a better understanding—is to be inaugurated February 12 by the Columbia Broadcasting System and the British Broadcasting System.

the British Broadcasting System.

Sir Frederick Whyte, Brilish diplomat and publisher, is to discuss English and European events for the Columbia audience each Saturday, and Raymond Gram. Swing, one of the editors of "The Nation," and former newspaper correspondent, will comment on American events for British listeners, each Tuesday evening.
