

Sequel to Grim Drama "... And Sudden Death" to Be Offered by Radio Today

Broadcast Scheduled Over KHJ Mrs. Roosevelt's New York Talk Also Feature

BY CARROLL NYE

Favorable reaction from listeners to KHJ's dramatization of the Readers Digest article, "... And Sudden Death," which went on the air last week, has inspired Carroll O'Meara, the station's continuity editor, to turn out a half-hour drama based on the aftermath to the article, appearing in the current issue of the magazine.

The graphic and gruesome word picture of the devastating effects of careless driving was written by A. J. Bracken, Chappelle (Neb.) undertaker, whose daily encounters with the "aftermaths" of traffic accidents made such a strong impression on his mind that he decided to pass his observations on to the reading public. Dial KHJ at 6:30 p.m.

Another special feature on KHJ's log is the address of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at 8:15 a.m., when she dedicates the government's first low-cost housing project in New York City. The ceremonies are to be held on Third street, between Avenue A and First avenue, where the housing project has been constructed. Gov. Lehman and Mayor LaGuardia may appear on the program.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT TO BE BROADCAST

The Rochester Civic Orchestra will offer a concert especially for children, over N.B.C. and KECA at 10:45 a.m. Guy Fraser Harrison, conductor, is to give brief explanatory talks between selections, in the manner of Dr. Walter Damrosch.

FRENCH SONGSTRESS WITH BERNIE

Irene Bordoni, famous French entertainer, is to be Ben Bernie's guest star on the old maestro's program over KFI at 10:15 p.m. She'll sing several numbers from her repertoire of novelty songs and exchange quips with Bernie.

ROMBERG OFFERS OWN COMPOSITION

Sigmund Romberg will miss the opening of one of his shows for the first time today, in order to keep his weekly date with the radio audience. "May Wren" opens tonight at a Broadway theater, but Romberg will be at Radio City, batonning a song hit from his "Student Prince"—"Deep in My Heart." (KFI—7 p.m.)

DOTTED LINES ON THIS AND THAT

John Royal, vice-president and program director of the National Broadcasting Company, arrived in Los Angeles from New York yesterday to attend the opening of the network's new Hollywood studios to be held next Saturday. Irene Rich, screen and radio star, returned to California yesterday aboard American Airlines, after three years' absence. She will remain here for several months, during which time she will make her weekly radio appearances. Molasses in January dished out a gag on the weather in a recent broadcast. Imagine their amazement when nearly 100 letters of resentment came to the studios from indignant Mohammedans. It appears that Mohammedans hold to the opinion that the weather is God's arrangement, and must never be criticized.

Rdsy rhapsody to Alexander Woolcott for reading that masterly piece of journalism, "Mary White" on his broadcast last Sunday. We aren't treated to such gems very often on radio. This notice came from KMTR last Friday: "KMTR will broadcast, by remote hook-up, the gala festivities to be held Saturday night to commemorate the opening of Santa Claus Lane in Hollywood at 7:30 p.m." That was the last we heard about it. The broadcast did not materialize. Lawrence Tibbett will be heard as Russia's mad and murdering Czar, Boris Godounov, when he enacts a scene from Moussorgsky's opera of the same name on his current broadcast over C.B.S. and KHJ at 5:30 p.m. His other selections are "Betsy's Boy" by Jacques Wolfe, "Drums in My Heart" by Youmans and Schubert's "By the Sea."

The Walden String Quartet will play the Quartet No. 2 for strings and piano, by the French composer, Gabriel Urbain Faure, over KHJ at 1 p.m. KPAC offers an interesting stunt from the Olympic Auditorium each Tuesday evening. Stuart Buchanan, the roving milkman, interviews celebrities between rounds of the fights. A member of the audience will describe a round tonight. (9:30 p.m.)
