

RADIO TODAY

Networks and independent stations announced yesterday the cancellation of all regularly scheduled programs today and through tomorrow night, with normal operations not being resumed until Monday morning. Broadcasts today and tomorrow will consist of news broadcasts, appropriate music, memorial services, eulogies and other special tributes to the late President.