

Today's Radio Highlights

The Right Honorable Malcolm MacDonald, British Secretary of State for the Colonies, speaks from London on "The Colonies and the War"—WOL, 4:15 p. m.

Fulton Lewis, jr., Mutual's able political commentator, receives official notification of a signal honor: He has been selected as one of the "Ten Outstanding Young Men of 1939," a group selected annually by the editors of "America's Young Men," California yearbook published by Gurward Howes, former president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce—WOL, 7 p. m.

"Way Back in 1939 A. D." was one of the big hits of "Three After Three," the Johnny Mercer-Hoagy Carmichael musical recently at the National. As should inevitably be the case of a song with such "cute" lyrics and melody, Gracie Allen adopts it to her unique style—WJSV, 7:30 p. m.

Representative Emmanuel Celler (Democrat), New York, discusses "Recovery or Higher Taxes"—WMAL, 7:45 p. m.

A noted playwright lost an unpublished manuscript in a sea disaster. Finally returning to New York, he finds the play a success under the authorship of another man. Charles Boyer plays this odd tale, "The Man From Yesterday"—WRC, 8 p. m.

Brown Bomber Joe Louis tangles with that Dynamic Destroyer of the Airways, Fred Allen—WRC, 9 p. m.

Senator Alva B. Adams (Democrat), Colorado; Representatives Homer D. Angell (Republican), Oregon, and Karl E. Mundt (Republican), South Dakota, voice their opposition to the Administration's reciprocal trade agreement before the American Good Government Society—WMAL, 10 p. m.
