

The Post Radio Time Table

7:15 p. m., WINX—"The Community Chest Is On the Air" titles this series of weekly programs.

7:30, WRC—Jean Muir has deserted the films these days, but she's not lost her taste for the "better things" of literature. On Cavalcade of America, she plays the New England poetess, Emily Dickinson.

8, WJSV—Edward G. Robinson plays a story in which political bigwigs try to curb the freedom of the press through legislation. Notice any ears getting pink?

9, WRC—Forced out of the glittering gala line-up by bad flying conditions, Eddie Cantor plays host to his radio "pappy," Rudy Vallee, who first introduced the comedian to the airlines in 1931.

9, WJSV—President James Gallagher of the Compressed Air, Free Air, Foundation, Tunnel, Caisson, Cylinder, Subway, Cofferdam and Sewer Construction Workers Union, Local 147, A. F. of L., is Fred Allen's visitor.

9:30, WOL—Tonight the San Carlo Opera is singing "Cavalleria Rusticana" at the National. The church scene from Mascagni's torrid opera is also a highlight of the Chicago Music Land program, with Marion Claire and Henry Weber's orchestra.

10, WRC—Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge takes to the road with Ginny Simms, Harry Babbit and Ish Kabibble.

10, WMAL—"Shall the Appeasers Drag America Into War?" asks Senator Claude Pepper, of Florida.

10:15, WJSV—"The Lend Lease Bill" titles a Public Affairs address by Representative Frederick Smith (Republican), of Ohio.

10:45, WOL—Hanford MacNider's title for a talk on the evening's outstanding subject is "H. R. 1776—A Farewell to Independence."
