

The Post Radio Time Table

9:15 A. M., WJSV—Pure coincidence finds the American School of the Air on the subject of the Hudson's Bay Co., with Dr. Roy Chapman Andres as narrator, just when a Paul Muni film of that association is at the Columbia.

6:30 P. M., WINX—The National Christian Mission, broadcasting its local convention schedule over this station at 9:30 each morning, offers a round-table discussion of its aims.

7:30, WRC—Of all the specters that haunt Pennsylvania Avenue, Henry Clay's is one of the most vivid; his efforts on behalf of the Compromise of 1850 had far-reaching results. Cavalcade of America dramatizes part of the career of this colorful Kentuckian.

8, WRC—After a flying visit to benefit the Birthday Ball and to say hello to sparkling Lana Turner, Tony Martin is back at the Gold Coast mike, ready with "You're a Mystery to Me," "Breakfast for Two" and "Here in the Velvet Night."

8, WMAL—It's three girls versus two boys on tonight's Quiz Kids to determine who'll return for those $100 bonds next week.

9, WRC—Temporarily out of a job now that Al Jolson has closed his musical-comedy in New York, Jinx Falkenburg, that quainly named glamor child, gleans advice from Eddie Cantor on how to behave in Hollywood. Bert Gordon, also of the late show, also has landed in sunny California.

10:30, WOL—"What America Expects of Its Youth in 1941" titles two addresses delivered by Admiral Harold Stark, chief of Naval operations, and Kenneth L. Roberts, author of "Oliver Wiswell" and "Northwest Passage," in celebration of the ninety-fifth Charter Day of Bucknell University.
