The Post Radio Highlights

Daylight Savings Time is now in effect in many Eastern States, and over the networks, causing more than one headache for radio fans seeking their favorite programs, and for editors seeking to show them where they are. Generally speaking, all programs move up an hour, though soap opera listeners will find the daytime tragedies are a baffling mixup, what with their new summer schedules. A few of the evening programs are shifted to new periods, too.

Festival, opening this week.

7, WOL--That Amazing Mr. Smith investigates the case of the Nervous Doctor.

8, WJSV—"Wife, Husband and Friend," are portrayed, respectively, by Priscilla Lane, George Brent and Gail Patrick.

9:30, WJSV—Ah, here they are! Instead of their usual spot, which should be at 6:30 by all the rules of daylight savings, the Bumsteads come on at 9:30. Switches like this make us very happy at this time.
