

Radio Highlights

10:00 a. m., WRC—Victory Volunteers presents a message from our Government on hoarding and the cost of living enacted by the cast from "When a Girl Marries."

7:30 p. m., WJSV—Vivian della Chiesa sings "Tango of Roses" and Cyril Scott's "Lullabye" as her solo numbers in a varied program of favorites presented on "The American Melody Hour."

8:00 p. m., WRC—A hero of Guadalcanal who also participated in World War I will be a guest of Ginny Simms on her "Johnny Presents" program.

8:00 p. m., WJSV—Arch Oboler tells the story of "Chicken Heart" on "Lights Out." This new thriller is guaranteed to freeze the spine.

8:30 p. m., WMAL—Ed Gardner will reach for a high note in comedy as he lures Giovanni Martinelli, the Metropolitan Opera tenor, to "Duffy's."

9:00 p. m., WRC—Three British Tars and three British women warworkers battle it out on Walter O'Keefe's question and answer show.

9:30 p. m., WOL—Diagnosing "The Perfect Crime of Mr. Digberry" will teach listeners that when blackmailing people, never run away with a pocket full of money because it tips the whole thing off to the police.
