

Tuesday's Area Radio Programs

RADIO HIGHLIGHTS

WGMS—10:05 a. m. Fugue in G minor by Bach, Symphony No. 4 in E minor by Brahms and Mozart's Dance No. 1.

WMAL—11:30. Herbert T. Cobey, author of "The Blond Corinthian," is guest.

WOL—12:15. Rep. Alfred D. Sieminski (D-N. J.) is interviewed.

WTOP—3:15. Contestants in the finals of the Pillsbury baking contest are interviewed from scene of the "bake-off" in New York.

WCFM—7:30. Phil Dreyer discusses the International Veterans Conference in Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

WMAL—8. Stewart Toland's "Gray Goose of Silence" is dramatized.

WRC—8. Tyrone Powers stars in "The Giant Who Stepped Over the Mountain," story of John Sevier who helped found the State of Tennessee.

WOL—8. "The Woman of the Year: The Air Force WAF" is subject of broadcast.

WCFM—8:05. Tschaikovsky's "Pique Dame," Act III, Part 2. Berlin Radio Orchestra and Civic Opera chorus.

WRC—8:30. Gary Merrill stars in "The Things Women Can Buy," story of a failure who finds himself wanted for murder.

WGMS-FM—8:30. Margaret Ferguson, soprano, in program including works of Pergolesi, Mozart, Weckerlin and Schubert.

WCFM—8:30. Berlioz' Symphonie Fantastique and March from Les Troyens.

WMAL—9. "How Can Britain and America Reconcile Their Differences?" R. W. G. MacKay, former Member of Parliament and members of the British delegation to the Council of Europe, and Rep. James G. Fulton (R.-Pa.).

WTOP—10. The Orchestra of the Academy of Santa Cecilia in Rome plays Symphony No. 4 by Glauzounov and Kabelevsky's Symphony No. 2.

WRC—10:30. Lilli Palmer and acting student Frederick Sauers star in "The Philomel Cottage," story of a woman who suspects her husband of murdering his previous wives.

WASH-FM—10:30. "Heisman Trophy Award" honoring Dick Kazmaier, All-American.