

Monday's Area Radio Programs

WMAL—11:15. "You're Hearing Things," new program starring Bill Malone and Joe Campbell, on which strange sounds—like the sound of an egg being peeled—are guessed by the audience.

WTOP—5:05. Gene Klavan takes over as emcee of "Top Spot."

WTOP—5:25. "The Gallup Poll," daily daily test of public opinion, makes its WTOP debut.

WOL—5:45. Sam Kaufman's "Human Side of the Sports" moves to new time.

WCFM—7:30. Bertha Adkins, Republican National Committee, begins weekly series on politics.

WTOP—8. Dinah Shore stars in a musical dramatization of "Frankie and Johnny."

WRC—8. Virginia Haskins, soprano, joins Gordon MacRae in Jerome Kern's "Sunny."

WRC—9. George London, American bass-baritone, is guest soloist.

WTOP—9. Gordon MacRae and Jane Wyman appear in Booth Tarkington's "Moonlight Bay."

WGMS-FM—9:05. Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 4 in G, Boccherini's Sextet in E flat and Sinfonia Concertante in G.

WCFM—9:30. Robert Frost reads from his own poetry.

WRC—10. Ohio and Florida primary elections are previewed.

WTOP—11:30. Socialist Labor Party presidential candidate discusses his platform.