

Friday's Area Radio Programs

WMAL—11:30 a. m. Former Representative Mary A. Norton discusses "Why a Woman Should Be Vice President."

WWDC—1:25 p. m. Washington Nats vs. New York Yankees, doubleheader.

WTOP—8. Charles Dickens' "Dr. Manet's Manuscript" is dramatized.

WTOP—8:30. "Out of the Night," Frank Oleson's surprise-ending story.

WRC—9. Gisele MacKenzie is guest vocalist with Mario Lanza.

WCFM—9. Gershwin's "An American in Paris," Concerto in F with Oscar

Levant, and Rhapsody in Blue with Sanroma.

WRC—9:30. United States-Canadian Independence Day, program highlighting the freedom of the two neighboring countries.

WWDC—9:30. Pfc. Eddie Fisher is featured singer in program devoted to George M. Cohan melodies.

WTOP—10. First episode in Carlton E. Morse's new series, "The Cobra King Strikes Back."

WMAL—10:15. "Frank and Jackson" take leave tonight for three weeks.