JACK LAURENCE'S "Kissable Lips Contest of 1952," on WARC, has assumed an international flavor. Among recent lip-print entries was one alleged to be from a titled member of the European nobility, a baroness. Jack has received many unusual entries: a 50-yard roll of lip-prints from one girl who signed herself, "Annie from Australia;" a carton of book matches with a lip-print inside each cover from an entry who called them her "Kisses of Fire;" even a lip-sticked flounder from a practical joker who mailed the fish to the station.
