

Thursday's Area Radio Programs

WWDC and WASH-FM—12:45: World Series game.

WMAL—1:15. News simplified for school children.

WTOP—3:15. Victor McLaglen is guest of Art Linkletter.

WCFM—6. "You Can Afford to Eat," first in new series conducted by Mrs. Milton E. Miles, chairman of Nutrition Service for the D. C. Red Cross.

WASH-FM—6:15. Swami Premananda begins new series of Thursday broadcasts on Yoga and associated philosophical concepts.

WTOP—8. Audrey Totter returns to the air with "Meet Millie," a comedy series.

WTOP—8:30. Barbara Whiting returns as "Junior Miss."

WASH-FM—8. Premiere of "Modern Adventures of Casanova" with Errol Flynn playing a modern adventurer.

WCFM—9. Paisiello's Overture to "Nina Pazza Per Amore" and Mahler's Symphony No. 4.

WGMS-FM—7:30. Act II of "The Miserly Knight" by Rachmaninov with Cesare Siepi and the Little Orchestra Society.

WRC—9:30. Eddie Cantor returns in his series of stories about people in show business.

WTOP—10:30. Half hour dramatic documentary starring singer Sandy Solo, armless veteran, in the story of his life, with Macdonald Carey as the Disabled American Veterans advisor who guided him to a new career.

WGMS-FM—10:30. Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 in C.