

Tuesday's Area Radio Programs

WMAL—11:30 a. m. Rita Gam, silent siren of "The Thief," is guest.

WGMS—12:30 p. m. Marian Merrill, author of "Calendar of Love," is guest.

WASH-FM—2:30. Kim Hunter is guest.

WTOP—3:15. Edith Head, fashion designer, is guest.

WGMS—5:05. Bizet's "L'Arlesienne Suite No. 1," Stravinsky's Scenes de Ballet and Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite No. 2."

WCFM—9. Milhaud's Symphony No. 1, Ibert's Concertino Da Camera and Ravel's Valses Nobles and Sentimentales.

WMAL—9. "What Are the Real Differences Between the Candidates?" Discussion by Govs. Val Peterson of Nebraska and Fuller Warren of Florida.

WASH-FM—9. United States Air Force Symphony Orchestra conducted by Col. George S. Howard.

WGMS-FM—9:05. Debussy's "Iberia," Sarasate's "Zigeunerweisen" and Kodaly's Hary Janos Suite.

WWDC—9:45. United States Army Band Orchestra conducted by Capt. Hugh Curry.

WTOP—10:15. Philip Murray, president of the CIO, speaks on behalf of the Democratic nominees.

WTOP—10:30. Gov. Adlai Stevenson delivers a political address. (Recorded.)

WRC—11:30. New York Herald Tribune Forum includes talks by Dwight D. Eisenhower and Gov. Adlai Stevenson (by recording).