

Saturday's Area Radio Programs

WMAL—1. Fifty-five minutes of serious music precedes the first Metropolitan Opera broadcast of the season.

WRC—1:45. Army-Navy football game.

WASH-FM—1:45. Georgia vs. Georgia Tech football game.

WOL—1:45. Notre Dame-Southern California football game.

WMAL—2. Metropolitan Opera presentation of "La Forza del Destino" by Verdi with Zinka Milanov, Richard Tucker and Leonard Warren. Intermission guests include Boris Goldovsky, Ezio Pinza, Judge Edna Jenkins, Sigmund Spaeth, Deems Taylor and Walter Ducloux.

WTOP—2:30. Notre Dame-Southern California football game with Red Barber.

WRC—6:30. Guido Cantelli conducts the NBC Symphony in works by Paul Creston, Frank Miller, Weber and Schumann.

WTOP—6:45. Sir Oliver Franks, departing British Ambassador, in farewell address. (Recorded.)

WMAL—7:30. "Payroll Party," quiz program which encourages thrift.

WTOP—8. Singer Rosemary Clooney is guest of Gene Autry.

WASH-FM—8:30. John Hodiak and Janis Paige are co-starred in "Manhattan Melodrama." (Repeat performance at 10 on WOL.)

WRC—8:30. "Reuben, Reuben" disk jockey program, moves to new time.

WCFM—9:30. Bach's Missa Brevis in A major and Bloch's Sacred Service.

WASH-FM—10. Gloria Lane, John Druary and Richard Harding Humphrey are featured in Bizet's "Carmen."

WWDC—10. John Wayne, Bob Hope, Jane Russell, Marilyn Maxwell, Jerry Colonna, Spike Jones and others salute the Coast Guard.