A BENEFIT theater performance unique in this area and probably in the history of broadcasting will be held from WCFM January 29 at 8:30 p. m. under the sponsorship of the Listener Committee for Better Radio, Inc.

The Margaret Webster recorded production of Henrik Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler," starring Eva Le Gallienne, will be presented. Radio station time has been purchased by the Listener Committee and no commercial announcements or conventional radio time limitations will interfere with the program.

Token tickets to the performance will be offered to the listening public at $2 each for "fireside" seats. Listeners who contribute an actual "admission" will do so on a voluntary basis since, of course, the program will be available to anyone possessing an FM set. Proceeds of the air benefit will be devoted to the financing of a series of similar programs.
