

Today's Radio Highlights

11:30 a. m.—WTOP. Make Up-Your Mind: Actress Dorothy Gish tells stories about the theater.

1:15 p. m.—WWDC. Club 1260: Fred Fiske features a selection of Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band arrangements.

2:15 p. m.—WRC. Week-day: Guest is conductor and choral director Walter Schuman.

3:35 p. m.—WTOP. Mark Evans talks about "The First Christmas Play."

5:35 p. m.—WGMS. Road Show: Coates, London Again, Television March.

7:05 p. m.—WGMS. Howard Mitchell: Berlioz, Corsair Overture; Schumann, Symphony No. 2 in C.

8 p. m.—WMAL. The World and You: Gunnar Back interviews actor Arthur Kennedy of "Valour Will Weep;" and also covers an antiaircraft battery alert.

8 p. m.—WRC. College Basketball: Maryland vs. Kentucky.

8:05 p. m.—WGMS. Catholic University Concert: Catholic University String Quartet, Katharine Hansel, soprano. Beethoven, Scottish Songs. George Thaddeus Jones, vocalist.

9:30 p. m.—WMAL. Off-beat: Scientist W. H. Miller discusses a new ingredient for maintaining freshness of meat and poultry.

10 p. m.—WTOP. Bob Dalton Show: Bob features Deanna Durbin's recordings of "La Traviata" and "It's Raining Sunbeams."

10:30 p. m.—WWDC. Official Detective: "One Bad

Apple" is the story of a numbers racket which is hidden behind a fruit stand.

11:30 p. m.—WRC. Voices of Christmas: "Sweet Singing in the Choir" is broadcast in cooperation with the British Broadcasting Corporation.