

Highlights On Radio

11 a. m.—WRC. Weekday: Singer Edith Piaf is a guest.

11:30 a. m.—WTOP. Make Up Your Mind: Actor Robert Preston gives a husband's view on gift shopping.

11:30 a. m.—WWDC. Queen for a Day: Five finalists compete for the "Queen of Liberty" title and the privilege of reigning in the Parade of Roses on Jan. 2.

3 p. m.—WTOP. House Party: Caroline Leonetti presents a "Young Miss America" fashion show.

3:05 p. m.—WGMS. Record Album: Corelli, Suite for Strings; Mendelssohn, Scherzo in E minor.

6:05 p. m.—WGMS. Showcase: J. Strauss, Graduation Ball.

8 p. m.—WMAL. Ten Top Stories of 1955: John Daly narrates a review of what he considers the ten top stories of the year.

9 p. m.—WRC. News Year, 1955: A special program dramatizes the most important news events of 1955.

9 p. m.—WMAL. Sports, 1955: Bill Stern presents excerpts from 22 actual sports broadcasts during the past year.

10 p. m.—WRC. Basketball: Final game of the Eastern College Athletic Conference's fourth annual Holiday basketball festival.

10:30 p. m.—WWDC. Counterspy: David Harding cracks down on a bootlegging gang which poses as a group of innocent liquor salesmen.

11:05 p. m.—WGMS. Music 'til Midnight: Prokofieff, Classical Symphony in D; R. Strauss, Festival March; Siegmeyer, Ozark Set; J. Strauss, Tales from Vienna Woods.