Work Is Keeping Wolff From Bob's Own Door

By Laurence Laurent

PEOPLE AND PROGRAMS:

Sportscaster Bob Wolff is still up in the air. Tonight, he flies to New York City, where on Saturday night, Bob will supply commentary for the Manhattan vs. LaSalle basketball game in Madison Square Garden. This will be the first time since he beamed a TV network in the northeast section of the United States.

At midnight, Wolff will board a transcontinental airplane. On Sunday, he'll be in the Los Angeles Coliseum, describing play-by-play action in the Baltimore Colts vs. Los Angeles Rams professional football game. This will be telecast by a network of stations in the Midwest, hooked up to Detroit.

On Monday, Bob returns to Washington and may spend an entire day on the ground.

Clyde, Charlie Chase, Harry Langdon and Zazu Pitts. Twice during "The Morning Show," Sam Suton will report local and area news (7:25 a. m. and 7:55 a. m.).

FLORENZ HINZ, lately public relations man with the Washington office of the Mutual Broadcasting System, moves to Kal, Ehrlich and Merrick Advertising Inc. He'll be the firm's public relations consultant. . . Patsy Kline, the singer from Winchester, Va., who used to work in "Town and Country Jamboree," continues in demand as a guest performer. She'll visit the Howard Miller Show on Monday (1:30 p. m., NBC, WRC-TV, COLOR). . . Sir Winston's daughter, Sarah Churchill, has been signed to star on "NBC Matinee Theater" once a month for the next six months. Producer Albert McCleery (who considers Sarah to be "one of the four most beautiful women in the world," announced the agreement and said: "I want to make sure this talented actress stays in this country for a while." . . Garry Moore's vocalist, Denise Lor, will be in Florida for the next two weeks on a personal appearance assignment. Sandy Stewart Don't try to find "Saber of London" tonight on WRC-TV. Saber is moving into the Sunday schedule (Dec. 22) and his Friday evening spot (7:30 p. m., NBC, WRC-

I ask myself a question: "If Polly Bergen is really that dumb, how did she ever become a TV star?" Sharpest mind on that panel, judging by his to-the-point questions, belongs to Hy Gardner. . . The most relaxing program on the air is the "Voice of Firestone" and with each passing year I find that I look forward to the Monday night program with increasing eagerness. Good music is a rare commodity these days on TV. The trained and true operatic voices are a weekly delight.
