Appreciation Course Starts on Air Friday

NEW YORK—The NBC Music Appreciation hour, conducted by Dr. Walter Damrosch, dean of American music teachers, will inaugurate its tenth season of weekly broadcasts on Friday, Oct. 15.

Also continuing the policy of past years, the progressive course will consist of four series of concerts—A, B, and D—designed in their musical content with accompanying explanation by Dr. Damrosch to meet the requirements of different age levels.

Three Big Eight Teams Are Still Undeclared

Fort Atkinson, defending champion in the Southern Six conference, has made rapid advances toward repeating as football titleholder by rushing through its first two games with ease and comfort. Fort Atkinson scored 72 points in its first two encounters and is tied with Watertown for the lead, each with two wins.

Watertown's victories, however, have been over stronger opposition. The Goshlings defeated Wisconsin High, 12-7, and Stoughton, 14-6, in their two games. Fort Atkinson trounced Edgerton, 32-0, and Monroe, 40-6.

Wisconsin high and Stoughton are tied with an even split in two games. Monroe and Edgerton have lost two games each. Fort Atkinson takes on Stoughton in the feature game this week at the Waupun City. Watertown is host to Edgerton and Monroe plays at Wisconsin high.

Mrs. Dahl Wins Right to Visit Husband in Cell

SALAMANCA, Spain.—(U.P.—Mrs. Editha Rogers Dahl, blonde "orch singer" and bride of Harold E. Dahl, who narrowly escaped death before a Spanish insurgent firing squad, Saturday night obtained permission from Generalissimo Francisco Franco to join her husband. She will fly here from the French Riviera in a plane piloted by Capt. James A. Molison, English aviator, to visit Dahl in his white-washed prison cell.
