THE WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL

STOUGHTON-Work was started Friday by a Dane county highway department crew on the task of seal-coating the 10 blocks of streets, just off Main st., which were black topped this summer.

Members of the Albion branch of the Dane county chapter of the American Red Cross, will hold a meeting in the Albion town hall Thursday night. Following supper, election of a new chairman and secretary-treasurer will be made. Mrs. C. S. Sayre is chairman of the meeting.

Anton Halverson, Stoughton's second oldest resident, 415 Garfield st., celebrated his 92nd birthday anniversary Thursday with a family gathering at his home. Dinner was served at noon. Halverson was born in Norway October 21, 1845, and came to the United States in 1872 with his wife and three oldest children. The family settled on a farm near Stoughton and lived there until about 31 years ago, when they moved to Stoughton.

Gus Oberg and his son, Nils, went to Chicago Friday, where the formcr attended "Old Timers' Night," of all Master Masons, who have been members of King Oscar Lodge, No. 855, A. F. and M. Chicago, for more than 30 years. Oberg has been a member of the lodge 37 years. Its members included largely those who came to America from Norway, Germany, Sweden, and other foreign countries.

Clara Rorge and Mrs. William Mattison spent Thursday with Robert and Mrs. Kivlin, Brooklyn. Ingvald Johnson, Jr., returned Wednesday from Decorah, Ia., where he had spent the past six weeks with his brother-in-law and sister, E. T. and Mrs. Viner.

A pageant play of patch work quilts, under the direction of Mrs. William Mattison, and an exhibit of quilts will be features of the third annual fall fair, sponsored by the Tabitha of Central Christ Lutheran church next Tuesday afternoon and night. The church parlors will be transformed into festival ground with booths containing candy, aprons, and dolls, a white elephant booth, a silhouette shop and a pan-try. Mrs. Elmer Falk is chairman in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mmes, Bennie Lewis, Haakon Tholo Alfred Ehle, E. B. Duncan and R. F Schoenbeck.

Mrs. Rockwell Hyland entertained number of women at a quilting party Thursday afternoon at her home in the Hillcrest district. Jean Swan went to Watertown to attend the wedding of Mrs. Clara Frattinger and Frank Weber, both of Watertown.

out the dirt quickly and gently. 2 In the cone-shaped bottom of the Maytag tub is a sediment trap that collects the loosened particles of dirt. The water stays cleaner and clothes come out whiter. 3 The exclusive Maytag Roller Water Remover with flexible top roll and a firm bottom roll removes the water from the clothes evenly; without wet spots, and flushes out the last particles of dirt and soap

from the clothes. These three features alone should make your choice the Maytag.

There are many other advantages in owning the world's finest washer. Maytags available with gasoline Multi-Motor.
