Hill to Attend Capital Meeting of Ag Chiefs

(Journal Washington Bureau)

WASHINGTON — Wisconsin will be represented at the annual meeting of the National Association of Commissioners, Secretaries, and Directors of Agriculture to be held in Washington Nov. 15 by Charles L. Hill, chairman of the department of agriculture and markets, according to the office of Sen. Duffy.

In addition to attending the agriculture meeting, Hill hopes to be present at the opening of the special session of congress, when President Roosevelt will address a joint session.

Hill informed the senator's office that, although a change may be made in the state agriculture department set-up as to directors, the Badger state will be represented at the Washington conference.

Pittsburgh Trims Philadelphia, 16-7

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — (U.P.) — The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated Philadelphia, 16-7, before 4,000 fans at Forbes field Sunday to shove the Eagles deeper into the cellar of the eastern division of the national professional football league.

Philadelphia gained an early advantage in the first period when halfback Winnie Baze picked up a Pirate fumble and ran 15 yards for a touchdown. Dave Smukler converted.

The Pirates scored in the same period on a 27-yard pass from Johnny Gildea to Wilbur Sorlet. Armand Niccolai put Pittsburgh ahead in the second period on a 27-yard field goal from placement. Bill Davidson added a touchdown in the third period on an 87-yard run after intercepting Emmett Mortell's forward pass.

Stuhldreher Talks at Prep Coaches Clinic

MILWAUKEE, Wis. —(U.P.)— The fall clinic of the Wisconsin high school coaches association is scheduled to be here Nov. 4 in connection with the state teachers convention.

Harry Stuhldreher, John Walsh and George Martin of the University of Wisconsin are scheduled to address the coaches on football, boxing and wrestling, respectively. Six-man football will be discussed by Robert T. Cook of Williams Bay high school.

Other speakers will discuss track, basketball, and hockey.

Three Iowa First Stringers Injured

IOWA CITY, Ia. —(U.P.)— Capt. Homer Harris, tackle, and Bob Lannon and Erwin Prasse, first string ends, may be absent from the University of Iowa lineup in next Saturday's homecoming game with Minnesota, Medical Supervisor W. W. Hayne said today. Harris and Prasse suffered shoulder separations in the Purdue game Saturday and are carrying their arms in slings. Lannon is down with a charley horse. Four other regulars were badly bruised in the Purdue encounter.

Rochester Ties Cincinnati, 17-17

CINCINNATI, O. — (U.P.) — Rochester's Tigers, after rolling up a 10 point lead, were forced to come from behind with a last period touchdown to earn a 17-17 tie with the Cincinnati Bengals in an American Professional league football game before a crowd of 10,000 at Crosley field Sunday.

Geyer's third period touchdown and his early fourth quarter field goal for Cincinnati evened the score, 10-10, and the Bengals went ahead when McPhail romped across the line for another touchdown.

The play which gave Rochester a tie was Harry Newman's seven-yard touchdown pass to Savatsky, and Newman's successful placekick for the extra point.

Sentries Watch Turkeys

KIRKLAND, Ill. —(U.P.)— Armed guards and trained dogs maintain constant vigilance over 8,500 turkeys raised on the G. W. Ault farm near here for the holiday market. Guards patrol the turkey yard day and night to watch for thieves and a floodlight is turned on when the birds have gone to roost.

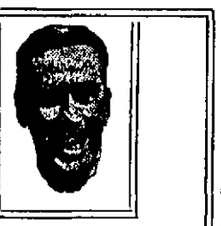
Madison Coming And Going



Roundy Says:

Bellin for Wisconsin can kick with about as great as accuracy as I ever saw to that goal line. He has made four punts now that I saw that rolled out inside the five yard line about. Bellin ran hard also Saturday with that ball folks and he made some good tackles.

Some say Purdue is better team than Northwestern so you see the work that is before us folks for that game.

Bert Ingwerson line coach of Northwestern told me that Purdue had best team in the Big Ten.

Wisconsin was biffed around some Saturday and the team will no doubt enjoy one Saturday off.

Reedsburg

Roundy:

Will you please tell us how Bill Wambsganss made that triple play unassisted for Cleveland against Brooklyn in 1920 as per last night's paper October 5th, 1937. Yours for old Wisconsin and I still think the Cubs are o.k. Thanks.

A Cub Fan

Here is how the triple play unassisted was made by Bill Wambsganss in the World Series of 1920. Kilduff was on second and Miller was on third base for Brooklyn. Mitchell, the batter, hit a liner over second base. Wambsganss leaped toward the bag and with a great jump speared the ball with one second and touched the bag retiring Kilduff. He then turned and saw Miller standing like a wooden Indian so surprised he couldn't move and Wambsganss ran over and touched him for the third out.

Superior, Whitewater Led Ped Loop Race

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—(U.P.)—Superior and Whitewater were the leaders today in the northern and southern divisions of the State Teachers college football conference.

Milwaukee, now in second place in the southern division, must face the Platteville Pioneers Saturday and Whitewater next week.

Superior will risk its unblemished conference record Friday night against River Falls. Eau Claire will meet La Crosse Friday night, while Stevens Point will be pitted against Oshkosh.
