

Radio: Film and Musical Stars to Be Heard on Air Tonight

Five film stars will appear in the Radio Theater's weekly show on WBBM tonight, while Richard Crooks, Gina Vanna, and the Philadelphia orchestra will headline the musical offerings. Here are the acts, classified:

Dramatic
7:30 p. m.—Grand Hotel (WMAQ): "Duet for Lovers."
8 p. m.—Radio Theater (WBBM): Mary Astor, Barbara Stanwyck, Errol Flynn, Constance Collier, and Alma Kruger in "These Three."
9 p. m.—Famous Jury Trials (WGN): murder case.
9:30 p. m.—Brave New World (WBBM): historic meeting of Bolivar and San Martin.

Variety
7 p. m.—Burns and Allen (WIBA, WMAQ): John Conte impersonates Edward Everett Horton.
8 p. m.—Phibber McGe (WIBA, WMAQ): tries to cook.

Informative
9:30 p. m.—National Forum (WGN): Agriculture Secy. Wallace on new farm bill.

Musical

Rambles
A letter informed Jack Benny that a three-year-old girl named Genevieve in Atlanta, Ga., staged a sit-down strike in front of the family radio set, refusing to go to bed till she heard Benny's show.
Johnny Lonsch, CBS production man, is Henry Youngman's "guinea pig." Johnny has a hard-to-reach funnybone and if a gag gets a laugh from him, Henry includes it in the Kate Smith hour.
Reed Kennedy is making phonograph records of the Christmas carols he's to sing as bass soloist for a prominent New York church.
Gabriel Heatter brings a Mother Goose book to "We, the People" rehearsals to read to child guests to soothe their nerves.
Enroute back to New York from Hollywood, Frank Black wrote six new arrangements for his "Magic Key" orchestra.
Joe Granby, who plays dignified business men on the "Aunt Jenny" CBS show, also portrays tough gangsters on "Gang Busters" airings.
Minerva Pious has rejoined Fred Allen's Mighty Air players, after a summer spent playing Shakespeare and recent appearances of Silver theater radio dramas.
Spencer Bentley, starred in "Betty and Bob," has postponed his proposed Christmas auto tour until next summer. He's too busy now.

NEWS NOTES:
Martha Tilton, the "Sweetheart of Swing" with Benny Goodman's orchestra has just completed her first movie short, "Brokers' Follies."
Sylvan Kay, who with her Magic Violin, is featured with Phil Spitz and his "Hour of Charm" orchestra, was forced to turn down one of the leading roles in the "Big Broadcast" because she couldn't get to the coast.
Orson Welles, who is heard on MBS as "The Shadow" every Sunday, is putting his second Broadway production into rehearsal. It is John Dicker's "The Shoemaker's Holiday."
Ted Collins, producer of the Kate Smith Thursday night show, is experimenting with a new lighting effect for television broadcasts.
Ken Carpenter, just appointed announcer on "Hollywood Mardi Gras," has been assigned one of the four announcer jobs during the Rose Bowl football classic which NBC broadcasts exclusively on New Year's day.
Radio's newest romantic team, First Nighter star Barbara Luddy and Grand Hotel announcer Bret Morrison, won first prize at the Radio Costume ball held in Chicago Saturday night. Pair dressed as Romeo and Juliet.

LOS ANGELES

A Marian Martin

Every little girl who sees it is sure to want this dream of a frock—youthfully lovely, and cut on graceful princess lines! Mother, too, will want to stitch up Pattern 9529 when she discovers how easy its simple seams are to sew. Marian Martin has provided for two striking versions of this style. Make up model "A" for school—wear in a vivid chalice with gay splashes of tie-rack trimming Peter Pan collar, puffed sleeves, and patch pockets. Style "C" omits the buttons down its back, and has a go-to-party air, with three fetching bow-ends, square neckline, and a dainty bit of ruffling for accent. Complete Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart included.

Pattern 9529 may be ordered only in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, view A requires 2 yards 36 inch fabric and 2 yards tie-rack braid.

Send fifteen cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your size, name, address, and style number.

Be ready for Mid-Winter activities! Send for the New Marian Martin Pattern Book, and see its lively array of fashions—designs for every member of the family! Simple-to-sew patterns interpret the latest afternoon frocks, party styles, sports' flattery, and jaunty sporty togs—to say nothing of gay outfits for growing-up daughters! Fabric, accessory, and gift tips, too! Price of book fifteen cents. Price of pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together twenty-five cents.

Send your order to Wisconsin State Journal, Pattern Department, 232 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Secret Operative K-9, the sly dog, submits the following information: Hezzie introduces his 10th Glorified Washboard on the National Barn dance program Dec. 13. Sometimes called the Monday Morning Piano, these musical washboards are as difficult to build as they are to play. In 12 years, Hezzie has worn out nine boards, of which all have been built by Ken Trietsch, also a member of the Hot Shot crew. It takes about three days to construct one, as the horns have to be tuned and the gadgets arranged so that they are accessible to Hezzie's fingers as he tears across it at a 90-miles-an-hour pace.
Bruce Krammer (Prof. Kallenberg) auditioned 150 girls before he chose Cecil Roy to play the part of Daisy Dean in his Kallenberg Kindergarten sketch. Billy White, who is Corny Callahan, was chosen because of his vocal ability and for six months or more, was not allowed to say much more than "Yes," "No," and "Sure, Why Not" on Kindergarten broadcasts.
Gurney Chrysler, who left the advertising game to experiment with a flower business which has thrived beyond her imagination, will be the sole guest on Edgar A. Guest's "It Can Be Done" program Dec. 14. Joseph Dodson, also scheduled on the program, will make a later appearance because of additional time granted Miss Chrysler for her interesting story of success.
David Drockman, long identified with KHJ (Hollywood Mutual outlet) as musical director, severs affiliation with the station this week. Phil Baker says that in the best years of an actress' life in Hollywood are the first five she's 21.

Milwaukee Bid Low on La Crosse $1,500,000 Bridge

Milwaukee contractors have submitted the unofficial low bid for the steel work on the $1,500,000 high bridge over the Mississippi river at La Crosse, the state highway commission announced Saturday.
KHJ and Smith, Milwaukee contractors bid $506,620.99 for the job. The bid, of course, must be checked before it becomes official and the contract is let.
Second low in the five bids was made by another Milwaukee firm, the Wisconsin Bridge and Iron Co. The company bid $554,344.98.

Roundy Says: Yule Kettles Boil; Bring Holiday Cheer

Stuhldreher made a beautiful talk before he presented Zupke with the "W" sweater and he made a wonderful impression on the crowd. You ought to hear the fine compliments I heard from people on him afterwards.

I happened to be going up in the elevator after the banquet was over, and Zupke got into it with the sweater on his arm. I never seen a man so tickled in my life. I said Zupke pretty nice wasn't it and he said Roundy I never was so surprised in my life and I'm still upset about it. He wouldn't let no one else carry the sweater, when they would look at it he would still have both hands on it.

Up in the room after Elmer Layden, Yoss, McMillin, Waldorf, Frankie Frisch of the Cardinals and a host of others.

I'll have some dope on some of these fellows for you in a day or two. I seen them all at the Sherman House at the Big Ten meeting.

I'll never forget that Illinois banquet for Zupke. That's biggest banquet I ever attended in my life. They had lot of features that were good, had 100 waiters when they served the dessert came in with lights under the desert. All the lights in the hall went out except those and it spelled "Zupke" and "25th Anniversary". It took a lot of drilling to arrange that I'll bet. Every waiter knew just where he had to be.

I've got a lot more information but can't give it all out at one time as I haven't got room. But I'll have it for you in a few days.

The women from the Guild Hall called me up and said Roundy we are going to have a great big turkey dinner Tuesday with trimmings and all you can eat for 65 cents. It starts at 11:30 and 5:30.

And Wednesday night I want to see Jim McMillen wrestle. He's one of world's best easy don't kid yourself on that. He's going to be at the Eagle's Hall on Wednesday night to take on Mike Kilonis. Mike is the roughest guy this side of the Atlantic ocean.

WISCONSIN BANQUET
This Tuesday night is the Wisconsin football banquet. No doubt it will be so big they won't be able to handle them all. But there are still tickets left that is sure. It's going to be the most well balanced and handled banquet ever put on for the Wisconsin team. The details have been worked out to a queen's taste and if everything runs off in big fashion then the year will be remembered for years and years by those who attended this brilliant affair. The speakers table will be loaded with brilliant talkers and witty ones. The banquet will be broadcast over WIBA.

Mother, Four Children Perish in Home's Flames

ST. MICHEL DE WENTWORTH, Que.—(AP)—A mother and four children were burned fatally and six persons were injured when fire destroyed a wooden two-story home here Sunday.
The victims were Mrs. Albert Gagne, 37, two sons and two daughters, ranging in age from eight to 15 years.
Mrs. Gagne's husband, two other children, a cousin and two farmhands were injured when they jumped out of windows.
All were asleep when the fire, believed caused by an overheated stove, broke out. The four children were burned to death in their beds. Gagne managed to aid his wife, her clothes afire, and another child out of the window, but Mrs. Gagne was so badly burned she died in a hospital several hours later.
