Fan Fare

Dick Powell and Rosemary Lane will offer preview scenes of "Hollywood Hotel," the new Warner Bros. picture on the program of the same name over CBS on Jan. 14.

Louise Fazenda, screen comedienne, will add to the hilarity of the Al Jolson programs when she guestars with the mammy singer on his CBS program Jan. 11.

Andre Kostelanetz, now conducting "Concerts of American Music" over CBS, has traveled more than 125,000 miles during 1937 by plane to fill professional engagements.

Francis X. Bushman, a former silent picture player, is one of the most active dramatic actors in radio today. Stationed in Chicago, the home of script shows, Bushman is engaged in many productions, the latest of which is "Margot of Castlewood," NBC serial.

Constance Bennett, movie personality, will swap badinage with Bing Crosby and Bob Burns on the Music hall program over NBC on Jan. 6. Burns has prepared a special questionnaire with which he hopes to embarrass Connie into playing a duet on the bazooka.

Roy Campbell's Royalists, choral group of three girls and four boys, will be heard on Fred Allen's first broadcast from New York on Jan. 5.

Often a word spoken in jest, says Truman Bradley, is repeated by four or five radio comedians.

Hearings Open Jan. 4 On Rail Rates

By FRANK McNAUGHTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON —(U.P.)— The Interstate Commerce commission on Jan. 4 starts regional hearings expected to develop major opposition to the railroads' plea for $517,000,000 more revenue as a part of the new deal's program to aid business.

In hearings last month before the I.C.C., the carriers pushed their demands for horizontal 15 per cent increases in freight rates. The roads also sought an increase of from two cents a mile to 2½ cents in passenger rates in eastern territory.

During the hearings, the commission issued an order permitting Western and Southwestern roads to raise their passenger fares approximately $2,500,000 annually.

The Pullman company is asking a flat 10 per cent increase in sleeping and parlor car rates, in another case, to produce $2,000,000 additional annual revenue.

Ship Lines Seek Rise

Steamships operating from Gulf, Atlantic and Chesapeake bay ports, inland water carriers and belt line railroads are asking that they be included in any freight rate increase given to the Class 1 carriers.

The carriers base their plea on the argument that railroads—a $26,000,000,000 industry — would launch heavy commodity purchases, employ thousands of men, and make extensive improvements giving employment to millions in many industries, if given additional revenues.

They point to the national program to aid business and argue an increase in freight revenues would do more to accomplish objective than any other single act.

Vast Spending Estimates Made

Ralph Budd, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, estimated that carriers might spend $900,000,000 a year on improvements and replacement of rolling stock and lines over a period of several years, if given revenues sufficient to warrant public purchase of capital securities.

He estimated that $300,000,000 a year might be spent on replacement of cars, $300,000,000 a year of locomotives, and many millions on new improved track systems.

Typical of the assertions of a score of major railroads' executives was the statement of J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American railroads.

"With adequate revenues," he said, "we may reasonably expect a revival of railroad buying, and I know of no greater single stimulus to industry and employment."

Skippers Plan Attack

R. C. Fulbright, Washington, chairman of the shippers' committee, said major opposition to the freight rate increase "will be generated in the field hearings," starting Jan. 4.

The increase is strenuously opposed by livestock, cotton, grain, coal and oil shippers, and favored by steel and some other groups, he said.

The railroads' case is presented to the I.C.C.:

1. Costs of operation have increased approximately $664,000,000 a year, and material prices have gone up some 40 per cent.
2. Carloadings have been falling off at a heavy rate since Oct. 1, creating a critical situation.
3. Shrinkage of employment from 1,174,434 in July to 1,133,003 in September has been forced. Wage agreements have increased costs some $175,000,000 a year.
4. Operated revenues have shrunk till the return on investment is approximately 2.85 per cent.
5. Truck and water carrier competition, has created a serious problem for the industry.
6. Loans which must be repaid the Reconstruction Finance Corp. aggregate $350,000,000.
7. Besides R. F. C. loans, loans from the Public Works Administration amount to $200,529,000.
8. Ninety-six roads are in receivership, many more threatened, and percentage of railroad mileage involved is the highest in history—some 28 per cent—exceeding even the critical 1891-1895 period.
9. Stockholders are "forgotten men and women," receiving no returns on their investments.
10. Both federal and state taxes have been increased.

Editors in 'Big Town'

Edward G. Robinson, celebrated for his hard-boiled roles on stage and screen, is shown here with Claire Trevor, his co-partner in the radio serial of newspaper life, "Big Town," heard over the Columbia network every Tuesday night. Robinson plays the part of Steve Wilson, managing editor of a metropolitan tabloid, and Miss Trevor, the part of Lorelei, the society editor. The scripts are written by Playwright Arthur Caesar and Author Courtney Ryley Cooper.
