Sportsmen Meet Tonight at Court House

The January meeting of the Dane County Sportsmen's League will be held at 8 tonight in the court house. Proposed changes in the Wisconsin duck season for 1938 will be discussed. Representatives of the conservation commission and the U. S. biological survey will be present. The membership drive for the year 1938 will also be launched at this meeting. Elmer T. Culver is chairman of the membership committee.

Irish Giant Takes One-Way Ride

John Sullivan, seven-foot wrestler from Ireland, with 275 pounds displacement, goes for a piggy-back ride on Jim London, former world's champion. Shortly after this picture was taken, John came down with an earth-shaking crash. Yes, London won.

From the Press Box

A man who sat next to me at the six-day bicycle races in Cleveland recently was a baseball writer, assigned during the off season to keep score on the silly pig-saucer safari. Between innings he filled out his ball on ball players to be chosen this year for the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y.
