

Radio: Errol Flynn on Air Tonight

Richard Crooks, Metropolitan Opera tenor, will return to his Monday night spot after a week's absence, joining the Philadelphia Orchestra in headlining tonight's musical broadcast. The acts, classified:

Musical
7:30 p. m.—Richard Crooks (WIBA, WMAQ) and Alfred Wallenstein's orchestra and chorus; "Kathleen Mavourneen"; "Lindy Lou"; Massenet's "Erlene"; Rossini's "The Dance"; "Entrance of the Little Fauns"; "L'Arlesienne" suite.

8 p. m.—Philadelphia Orchestra (WENR); Eugene Ormandy, conductor; "Marriage of Figaro" overture; Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony; "Die Fledermaus" overture; "Perpetuum Mobile"; "The Beautiful Blue Danube"; "Pizzicato Polka."

Jane Froman is introducing a new card game on Radio 700 called crossword lexicon. It combines puzzles and anagram technique. You have to get rid of your cards as fast because every card carries a penalty.

Bob Burns will headline on the "Hollywood Hotel" program over CBS when the program presents a preview of his latest picture, "Radio City Reveals," on Jan. 28. This will make the second program this month that Burns contracted apart from his regular "Music Hall" airings. The other one was on Radio Theater.

James Mellon was host to the cast of "Song Shop" following his guest star appearance on Jan. 21. Occasion was Mellon's birthday the following day.

Jack Benny listeners were requested last year to name the most popular parody the jester presented. The winner was "Emperor Jones," which Benny repeated. Runner-up was "Ah, Wilderness" and Benny will revive it in a few weeks.

Jack Powell, blackface drummer, plans a 13-week network series aimed at juveniles, in which he will teach the youngsters the fundamentals of rhythm and the proper use of drumsticks.

"Johnny Presents" has been renewed over CBS on more than 50 stations for an additional 52 weeks effective Feb. 12. The series features the Charles Martin "Front Page News" dramas and the musical of Russ Morgan and his orchestra.

Edward Howard, Philadelphia strong man, 60 years old, who has given 867 blood transfusions, will be a guest star on the Gabriel Heatter "We, The People" broadcast over CBS on Feb. 3.

Beatrice Pons, network actress, has been added to the cast of the new "Dick Tracy" series starring Ned Weaver. Miss Pons becomes the first woman to be heard on the program.

The Bob Burns, in the parlance of the Broadway columnists, are threatening. He's the Arkansas bazooka player. The family addition is expected in February.

Joe Sodia, novelty banjoist, who has made two appearances with Kate Smith the past month, has been signed to appear again during February.

Hercules, the Snoezner, heard on the "Hollywood Mardi Gras," with Walter O'Keefe, has been revealed as James Kelsio, who started his sneezing career in the Zigfield Polies, sneezed on the Fred Allen program among others, and is now on the coast sneezing for pictures besides the "Mardi Gras" show.
