"Big Sister," daily serial starring Alice Frost, in less than a year's time on the air, has jumped to the top of the list for daytime script shows on the current Crossley report.

A new sponsor will take over Lum and Abner about March 1. King Farouk's 18th birthday party will be broadcast from Cairo, Egypt, by NBC on Feb. 11 at 8:45 a. m., with Joseph Levi, New York Times correspondent, describing it.

Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou have been extended on the Rudy Vallee programs until June 30. A new radio serial, written by Colette Lyons and Thelma White, and dealing with the adventures of chorus girls, is being considered by a major film company for network airing.

"Hammerstein Music Hall" has been renewed by its sponsor over CBS for an additional 52 weeks, effective Fcb. 25.

The song, "Let's All Be Good Scouts Together," with which Joe Penner saluted the Boy Scouts of America on his program Sunday was written by Hal Raynor (the Rev. Henry Scott Rubel), who does most of Penner's delirious ditties.
