Cunningham May Try for Record

NEW YORK, N. Y .- (U.P.) -- Glenn Cunningham was a heavy favorite to capture the Baxter mile for the fourth time in the 70th renewal of the New York Athletic club track and field games at Madison Square Garden tonight.

It was believed that Glenn will attempt to break his world record or 4:08.4 when he goes to the post against Archie San Romani, Kansas; Gene Venzke, Pennsylvania: Blaine Rideout, Texas, and, Ray Mahannah, national outdoor 1,500 meter champion from Drake university.

Cunningham, who won the Baxter special in '933, '35 and '37, has not been defeated in seven starts this winter. His best time was 4:10.

The fire department of Dublin, Ireland, fought 437 fires last year.
