Ten Win Titles at St. Bernard's

Ten grade school boxers won championships in the St. Bernard's tournament Tuesday night. Two technical knockouts featured the card.

Ray Kelly won the 75 pound championship with a technical knockout over Dale Gannon early in the third round. Referee Vern Woodward stopped one other fight on the 15-bout card. Hank Endres won the 80-pound contenders fight when Woodward awarded him a technical knockout over Jerome Triggs.

Don Phelan, who lost to Billy Boyle in the 65 pound championship batle, was picked as the "fittiest fighter."

The Boyle-Phelan bout stole the show, providing more action than any other fight. They are both wild swingers and had the crowd in an uproar throughout.

North-South Open Has Strong Field

PINEHURST, N. C.—(U.P.)—Horton Smith faced rugged opposition today as he teed off in defense of his 1937 North and South Open golf championship on Pinehurst's complex number-two course.

Leading professionals and some top-ranking amateurs, including C. Ross Sommerville of Ontario, and George Dunlap, former national amateur titleholder, were in the running as today's 18-hole first round started.

Opposing Smith's attempt to repeat his last year's victory, were Johnny Revolta, Harry Cooper and Byron Nelson, all of whom have been turning in excellent cards in the winter circuit.

Hard-hitting Jimmy Thompson, who turned in the lowest score of the year with a 273 in the Los Angeles Open, has been labeled the "dark horse" of the meet.

Vines Whips Perry, Increases Advantage

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(INS)—His famed "cannonball" serve and powerful forehand drives were working well Tuesday night and Ellsworth Vines overwhelmed Fred Perry, the good-humored Briton, 6-3, 6-2, in the feature match of their professional card. The games between the two former world champion amateurs now stand—23 victories for Vines to 19 for Perry. Walter Senior, former Canadian titleholder, defeated Berkeley Bell, Texas ace, 6-1, 8-6, in the preliminary match, but the two losers then teamed to defeat Vines and Senior, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4.
