Chanterelle Trio

Three University of Wisconsin co-eds who sang together "just for fun" and then became the 'Chanterelle Trio" on the radio are winning increasing popularity in their weekly broadcasts over WHA.

The trio consists of Irene Lound. Tomahawk; Mary Swanton, Madison, and Dorothy Reid, Stockton, Ill. Betty Schadauer, Madison, is accompanist. All are students in the school of music. Their programs consist of distinctive ar-rangements of old favorites, folk melodies, ballads, and musical comedy numbers. A theme melody composed by Miss Schadauer introduces the program each Saturday at 10:45

Fan Fare

Bob Ripley's program, "Believe It Or Not," moves to Tuesday nights at 9 p. m., starting April The last Saturday night broadcast will be April 23.

"What Would You Have Done?" an audience participation show in which a master of ceremonies offers difficult situations and asks for answers, will replace the Jack Benny Sunday shows for the ummer, starting July 3, when Benny goes on his annual vacation. The series, which enjoyed wide popularity as a west coas sustainer, will probably emanate from New York.

Ben Pollack and his orchestra will succeed Jimmie Grier's tunicians on the Joe Penner shows over CBS on Sundays starting April 3. Julie Gibson leaves with Grier and no girl vocalist has yet been selected to replace her.

Wilbur Hatch, west coast maestro, has joined Lud Gluskin and Charles Vanda, CBS program director on the coast, on a special audition board for the purpose of discovering new talent for the network via twice-weekly audition
