Bonura Key to Senators' Success

ZEKE BONURA... that bat is the key!

This is one of a series of sixteen stories about "Key Men of Baseball," players whose success is important to their teams' chances in the pennant races starting April 15.

By BILL BRAUCHER [Central Press Sports Writer] THE BOOMING bat of Zeke Bonura will break down the barrier between Washington and the first division. That's how Bucky Harris reasons, and his logic is sustained by the cold figures the big banana merchant has blasted into the books.

Balances the Club Bonura should wipe out the curse of left-handed pitching that has plagued the Senators for years. Clark Griffith now has the right-handed power hitter he has been seeking, and the club has fine balance, with Lewis, Travis, Myer, Almada and Stone hitting from the left side of the plate, and Rick Farrell, Bonura and either Al Simmons or George Washington Case hitting from the right.

Denies Murder of La Crosse Policeman

LA CROSSE, Wis. (U.P.) - Floyd Wegner, 36, Carrollton, Ill., pleaded not guilty in the La Crosse county circuit court Saturday to a charge of murder in the fatal shooting of Policeman Joseph Donndelinger on Dec. 10, 1937.

The court appointed an attorney to represent the defendant and he was held for trial in the circuit court term opening April 18.

Green Flays Non-Partisan Labor League

WASHINGTON (U.P.) - William Green of the American Federation of Labor announced Saturday that the executive council had urged all federation unions to withdraw from labor's non-partisan league and to set up rival "non-partisan political committees."

WASHINGTON (U.P.) - Alexander Caruana, 27, was sentenced to a year in prison Saturday for taking a joyride - in a naval hospital ambulance.

Arrest Solves Thefts, Belief

WAUPACA, Wis. (U.P.) - Sheriff Duncan R. Campbell said he believed Saturday that the arrest of Elmer Kuhnke, 30, of Mukwa township had solved more than 25 robberies in Oconto and Shawano counties.

Court Finds Excuse for Man's Slaying Mother-in-Law

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia (U.P.) - "Jail will be heaven to me compared to life with my mother-in-law," Radoye Radosavljevitich, 32, a peasant, told the court when he was sentenced to 10 years at hard labor for killing her with a hatchet. Three years ago Radoye married, sold his own farm, and went to live on the farm of his mother-in-law. When his money was gone, his life was made miserable by the women, witnesses testified. The court granted that there were extenuating reasons.
