Ben Bernie, affectionately called "the old Maestro," shows "all the lads" that he hasn't lost any of the technique that made him a concert violinist as a boy. Bernie has more or less neglected his fiddling lately to take on the role of master-of-ceremonies of his Wednesday night series over the Columbia network from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Aiding and abetting Bernie each week are Lew Lehr, word-scrambling dialectician; Buddy Clark, vocalist; Agnes Moorehead, his chief stooge, and "all the lads" in the orchestra.
