Just four years ago this month a comely southern maid with decided accent came to New York seeking her fortune in radio. Today that young lady, Betty Lou Gerson, is celebrating her fourth anniversary before the microphone by playing important roles in two ether serials, "Mary Marian" and "Attorney-at-Law". She can play French, English and southern dialects and maintains her headquarters in Chicago.

Would Declare Mother, Son Dead to Aid Probate

MONROE-For 19 years, the income from a $1,000 trust fund was Houston, Tex., so authorities here day after a long illness. sought a son, Jesse De Witt Woodward, who was to receive the money in that case.

In the last 10 years, there has been no word from either, so the Central Wisconsin Trust co., Madi-day, the Rev. E. J. O'Hagen of son, trustee, has started an action in county court here to declare both the mother and son legally dead so the trust fund, plus accrued interest, can be distributed to other heirs. Under Mr. Woodward's will, his widow was to receive the bulk of his $5,600 estate, with $1,000 to be set aside. The income from this was to go to Mrs. Woodward until her death or remarriage, and then to the son, Jesse. There were four

During the year, life insurance firms alone wrote $319,238,399 worth of insurance.

The number of companies licensed in Wisconsin as of Dec. 31. 1937, was 748. There were 198 stock fire and marine insurance companies from out-of-state, 194 town mutual fire insurance companies, 73 foreign stock casualty companies, 61 foreign mutual fire insurance companies, 41 foreign life insurance companies and 38 out-of-state fraternal societies, beside a small number of insurance concerns of other types.

The report, signed by H. J. Mortensen, insurance commissioner, also showed that the 1937 cost of conducting the department was $72,327.49. The total income of the state insurance fund during 1937, plus assets of Dec. 31, 1936, carried forward, was $4,021,405.35. Of this, $287,774.10 was 1937 in-

Charges Against Girl in Liquor Row Dismissed

RICHLAND CENTER—Charges against Helen Simonson, 19, that she had been used as a decoy to trap tevern keepers by violating the liquor law were dismissed by Police Justice August Berger here Saturday on the grounds that there was insufficient creditable evidence to support the charges,

On the basis on Helen's testimony in circuit court in April Mrs. Madge Davis was found guilty of selling liquor to a minor and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail. Following the trial Art Davis. Madge's husband, signed a com-plaint charging that Helen had given her age as 22 in order to procure the liquor.

Helen, in both the circuit court trial and in the preliminary examination Saturday, maintained that no question was asked her as to her age at the time the liquor was sold to her.

<i⊞NOIS CENTRA ... but trains must run... Railroads must operate even when business as a whole turns sharply downward.

Facilities necessary to handle considerable traffic must be maintained.

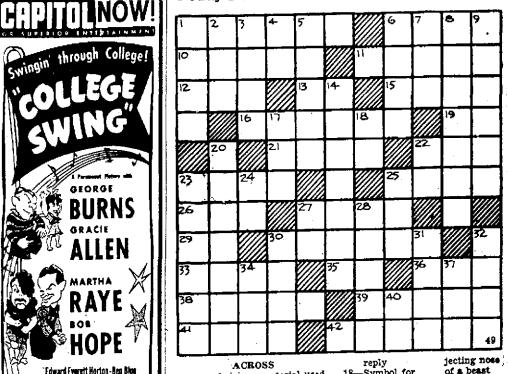

Otherwise there could be no recovery.

Through more than a century of alternating periods of depression and recovery, our railroads have continued to sustain our nation's business - to render faster, better, safer transportation.

That record has earned and deserved public confidence. Railroads can never be a burden, but rather a staff upon which the nation may lean.
