

Baby Snooks, the fresh kid of NBC's Good News of 1938 program, has just about exhausted the patience of her "daddy". When these pictures were taken, Snooks had met with a sharp rebuff and is about to break down into a lusty "Wahhh." The four stages in the break-down are pictured.

Joe Dorsetti Wins Over Stan Pesek

Joe Dorsetti topped off a rough wrestling program at the Eagles club Tuesday night by winning two out of three falls from Stanley Pesek in the windup attraction. Johnny Principi and George Hakenschmidt drew in the semi-windup after each had taken one fall and Dan Brown won the opener, pinning Kid Speers in 21 minutes with a double wrist lock. Dorsetti pinned Pesek for the first fall in 18 minutes after several strangle holds. Pesek took the second in 14 minutes with a dropkick after considerable hair pulling and the like. Dorsetti ended the match in 18 minutes by ducking under a dropkick to pin Pesek with a body press. Principi won the first fall from Hakenschmidt in 21 minutes with a reverse arm stretch and lost the second in 16 on a series of flying tackles and a body press. The rest of the match was wrestled without another fall.
