They say that if anything can break up the Admiral's unbeaten career, it is Pompoon. But I say that Pompoon is the horse the Adthat Pompoon is the horse the Adunfit for racing at this time and, miral always used to look roguish-Clay Riser, 94, and William H. forthwith, the $100,000 Memorial ly in the eye in the stretch—and Jackson, 95, who fought with the Day match race with War Adsomebour in horse racing there's something about always that gets to be a habit. Anyhow, if Mr. Riddle lets the Admiral go in the Surburban, it wan't be with some ingenuous idea of helping the track management, even though C. V. Whitney and Racing Chairman Herbert Bayard Swope did do a very graceful thing in telling Mr. Howard to forget his qualms of sportsmanship.

The latter's decision to acceed was so sudden that Trainer Tom Smith shortly thereafter came into the paddock with the horse ready to make his scheduled run in preparation for a race that wasn't going to be held, thus causing some to think that all this didn't look very good for Trainer Tom Smith. As a matter of fact, those on the inside declare that Smith has done "marvelous job" in keeping the forse in training for two years.

And this, by the way, strength-
