

Radio News and Programs 'America's Crime March' Tonight's Ace Program, Based on Actual Records

Professor John T. Frederick, above, who is heard on the CBS North-western Book Shelf program, is a busy man. In addition to his weekly broadcasts, he teaches at two universities, Northwestern in Chicago and Notre Dame in South Bend, and heads the Illinois WPA Writers' Project for the Federal Government.

Tonight's ace attraction is the presentation of actual case records entitled 'America's Crime March' over stations WIBA and WMAQ from 8:30 to 10. The case records will be dramatized in connection with the Interstate Commission on Crime currently meeting in Cleveland, Ohio. The script deals with the effect of environment upon the development of the criminal, the question of paroling an offender, and the deadly effects of marijuana on high school children.
