Viewpoints on Labor to Be Aired Tonight

Seven years ago, Peggy Fuller, pictured above, deserted radio to wed. During a stay in California in 1938, she took an occasional part. The lure was too strong, however, and now she's heard regularly in "The Guiding Light" and other dramatic network shows.

Sharp contrast in viewpoints on labor will be expressed in the "People's Platform" broadcast which Lyman Bryson, CBS educational chief, will conduct at 6 to 7 p. m. WBBM will carry the discussion on the role of labor in today's economic picture. Participants will be George E. Sokolsky, writer and labor relations counsel; a sociologist, an unemployed secretary, and a carpenter. Other headliners tonight:

Musical 7:30 p. m. — National Music Camp (WIBA, WENR); National H. S. orchestra conducted by Ernest LaPrade; "My Country," Wilson; first movement of Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony; first movement of Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole."
