Favorites Fill Newsport Tennis Quarter Finals

NEWPOR'T, R. J. (U.P.)—Seeded favorites with one exception filled the quarter-final bracket of the 22nd annual Newport Casino invitation tennis tournament Wednesday.

Only young Yvon Petra France was able to crash the seeded ranks, and that was by beating the player who advanced by default of sixth-seeded Frankie Kovacs, Oakland, Calif., Tuesday The youthful Frenchman won 6-4, 6-4 over 20-year-old William (Twin) Murphy, Chicago, who gained the round of 16 when Kovacs was overcome by the heat on Tuesday: Otherwise, the seeded list remained intact with Don Budge, Joe Hunt, Frankie Parker, Wilmer Allison, Elwood Cooke, Bryant Grant and Sidney B. Wood, jr., reaching the quarter-finals Wednesday. Top-seeded Budge, the redhead from Oakland, Calif., advanced handily with a 6-4, 6-3, victory over Archie Henderson, Chapel Hill, N. C. Don is seeking his third and retiring leg on the Newport Casino challenge bowl. Hunt, who heads the lower half of the draw sheet, and is seeded second to win the bowl, was extended to extra games in both sets before vanquishing Gene Mako in an all-Los Angeles match. The score was 8-6, 7-5. Parker, seeded third, from Beverley Hills, Calif., had a comparatively easy time, beating the national intercollegiate champion, Frank D. Guernsey, Orlando, Fla., 6-4, 6-4. Former national champion Wilmer Allison, seeded fourth, was pushed to 16 games in the second set before downing his old doubles teammate and for the title, got a scare from Gardnar Mulloy, Miami, but came trough to win in hree sets, 6-2, 1-6, 7-5. Cooke is seeded fifth.

Batteries; Billington and F. Cotton; Lippoit and Winter. Bryan Grant, Atlanta, seeded seventh, dropped the opening set seventh, dropped the opening set of his match to Jack Kramer, Montebello, Calif., but came back to win 5-7, 6-4, 6-2; and eighth-sected Wood, the veteran New York internaionalist, eliminated Here's New Record in Marathon Golf Hal Surface, Kansas City, 7-5, 6-1. Today's matches: Budge vs. Allison, Parker vs. Grant, Hunt vs. Petra and Cooke vs. Wood.

Highwaymen Win, Pad League Lead

In the Building league softball games Wednesday night at Bur-rows playground, the Highway commission defeated Washington building, its most dangerous rival for loop honors, 3-2, in an extra frame and took a two-game lead with 21 wins and 6 defeats. The Builders were relegated to second with 19 victories and seven losses. The Police department won on a forfeit from Baron brothers and slipped into third place with 16 successes in 26 starts. The Indus-trial commission forfeited to Wisconsin General Hospital, and the Commercial State Bank nicked the Callsen Realtors, 5-1. The International Harvesters tied with the Lawyers, 9-all in six frames.
