Feller a Washout? No! Says Vitt

NEW YORK --(INS)- Oscar Vitt, manager of the Cleveland Indians, here for a series with the American league-leading Yankees, today sought the reason for all this talk about 19-year-old Bobby Feller being a washout,

"Don't you believe all the stories you've hear; them tell of Fel-ler," Vitt said. "Lost his fast ball? Well, he's just like any person when things don't pan out exactly the way he'd like 'em to. Nothing more serious than that."

After explaining that he was changing Feller's style so as to eliminate the foot raised high in the air which throws Bobby off balance, Vitt said:

"Feller will be a really great pitcher in time. No question about it!'
