Irish Sophomores Will Be MoreThanSpear-Bearers

Following is the fourth of a series by Francis J. Powers on Western Conference and Mid-West football prospects for 1938.

By FRANCIS J. POWERS International News Service Sports Writer CHICAGO—(INS)—Contrary to

radition, sophomores will be more than spear bearers in the Notre Dame football show this season. Of last year's regulars, Elmer Layden can summon only Ed Beinor, the all-American left tackle, and Joe Thesing, fullback. There are eight other lettermen and 26 reserves in harness, but off their 1937 efforts, assistance from sophomores will be needed if the Irish finish on the broad side of a pristling nine game schedule. Outstanding among the sophomores and maybe another Marchie Schwartz in the making, is Bob Saggau a six foot, 185 pound left halfback from Denison, Ia. A right handed passer but left footed unter and shifty runner to eith, side, Saggau made a great recor on Iowa high school fields and as sought by more than one university. His play and develop-ment as a freshman was so outstanding that he may quickly blossom into a regular.

The quarter back situation may Josh Cody, head coach at the University of Florida, ran his fresman squad against the varsity in a semi-dummy scrimmage Wednes-Irish are long on full backs, with five veterans on hand, the 207 Milt Piepul may win recognition because of his powerful punting and strong blocking. If these three sophomores become more than prospects, Notre Dame's offense may be considerably more powerful than last season.

Other Sophs in Fight There also are outstanding sophomore candidates for every line position. Johnny O'Brien is making a strong bid for right end and George Rassas, a fine pass receiver of almost 200 pounds, is giving Earl Brown some spirited competition on the other flank. Joe Bechtold may bolster the currently uncertain right tackle and Tom Gallagher will be a fine alternate for Beiner at left.

With no strong right guard,

Layden has shifted Chuck Riffle from fullback, but the solution may be Johnny Gubanich. For center where there is open competition, an excellent prospect is Johnny Moriell, who spent the summer working in a graveyard.

In the opener against Kansas, Layden naturally will offer a team built on experience. His starting combination likely will be: Brown and Kelly ends; Beinor and Kell or Harvey, tackles; McGoldrick and Riffle, guards, with Longhi at center. In theb ackfield, Hofer or Sitko will play quarter! Steyenson, Zontini the halves, and Thesing fullback, Zontini has been shifted from left to right half and should be more valuable at that

Should Equal 1937 Record Of course, certain of the 1937 reserves are bound to be improved and complicate the competition, John McIntyre, who saw no action presentatives in all other positions and maybe considerably improved by mid-season.

Neither Kansas nor Georgia Tech are to be considered breathers, but if the Irish skip past their least duplicate their 1937 performance of six won, two lost and one tied. While Pittsburgh is missing from the schedule. Illinois and Southern California will be definlitely stronger than last season and others equally as good.

Grimm Signs With CBS for 3 Years

CHICAGO -- (U.P.) - Charlie Grimm, deposed manager of the Chicago Cubs, signed a three-year contract as sports announcer with Columbia Broadcasting system Wednesday, banishing rumors he might manage some other National league club next year.

Grimm had been mentioned as possible successor to Frankic Frisch, who was fired Sunday as manager of the St. Louis Car-dinals, and also in connected with manager posts with the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Browns.

Grimm accepted a post as base-ball announcer here three days after he was fired in July as Cubs' manager.

All Madison should be given the privilege of seeing the splendid moving picture. The film is merely a simple and straightforward presentation of that most beautiful of all stories, the beginning of life. It is done with a restraint and a good taste that can offend no one. Little children might not be interested because it might be beyond their comprehension, but surely every adult and every adolescent child can profit by seeing this picture.
