Petite Betty Olson is the "girl friend" of the Escorts and Betty program. Pint-sized Betty, who is only four feet 11 inches tall, stands on a box when at the inicrophone in order to harmonize with the six-footers who sing with her. Besides her singing, Betty has also qualified as an actress and appeared in several radio dramas.

George Hubert Cougar Tackle

With a good line, the backs look good. If the backs look good, the team probably will be good. We might say thus of Washington State this season for the Cougars definitely have improved. Key man in the Cougar line this year is George Hubert, a tackle, and John Klumb, tall end. Hubert has been playing second fiddle to other men for two seasons, but his play has been of the smashing type and Coach Babe Hollinbery counts on him to pave the way for his offtackle plays.

Belmont's Trees and T'ree to One

(Copyright, 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.) Fair Belmont, prettiest race track of the lot. What wealth of trees and shrubbery you've got! How beautiful, 'neath Autumn skies you lay With beds of flowers ablaze on opening day.

I love your elms, your maples and your firs; Each oak a Druid impulse in me stirs. Yet I would pass up all your trees, I swan, To have 10 smackers on a tree to one.

NEW YORK-John Pesek, who hasn't lost a referee's decision in 12 years, has just been declared null and void as world's heavyweight wrestling champion (Series G-9) by the National Wrestling Association, because, to ues the quaint phraseology of the association, he has refused to meet the leading contenders. In his place, the N. W. A. has elected Everett Marshall, the same Everett who has flopped in overdue for a break.

Thus does the wrestling racket want them to meet each other, naintain unblemished its record of punishing those who, in the scratching them out of the Bel-language of the profession, try to mont Gold Cup for which all three "louse up the game" by being are eligible? War Admiral and honest, and rewarding those who Seabiscuit owe it to Belmont to the past year to Crusher Casey, Louis Thez, Doug Wyckoff and,

Pesek is one of the few wrestlers low operating who refuses to take dives for apponents. For from re-fusing to meet the leading contenders, he posted a forfeit with the N. W. A. in 1936 and 1937 to meet any wrestler in the world, but the money was never covered Pesek was propositioned scores of times in that period regarding matches with the so-called topnotchers, but every proposition contained a proviso that he agree either to lose the match or take a draw.

Of course, among the wellinformed, the National Wrestling assn, carries no more weight than a bubble dancer, being dominated by a wing of the Wrestling Trust. Still, its title sounds impressive and its acts may deceive those not familiar with the serpentine workings of the organization.

It is even claimed by those in position to know whereaf they chirp that for a sum ranging from $500 to $1,000 anyone can receive the blessing of the N. W. A. and its title (which, by the way, still gets you into Grant's Tomb and the Aquarium free of charge.)

Manager of the new "world's champion," who already had claimed one of the 15) or more other titles in circulation, is Hilly Sandow, one-time power in the Trust, who is now fighting his old "Toots" Mondt, for conenemy, "Toots" Mondt, for con-rol of the decadent racket. Toots," as flat as one of his burper's stale routines, is now on his vay east, hoping that the fields hereabouts will be greener than they have been on the coast, where the racket is dying of dry rot.

Bill Terry has enough headaches these days without having to listen to second-guessers. Nevertheless, I can't refrain from mentioning he fact that if Freddie Fitzsimnons were on his ball club now, the Giants would have the National league pennant clinched.

It's easy enough to figure this out. With the seventh place Dodgers, Freddie has won 11 games, seven of them in a row. On top of that he'll probably wind up among the first five pitchers in the league in the matter of ef-Thus, with Fitz on his staff.

Ferry would be at least 11 games better off than he is, it's safe to assume, and in that case the Giants would be in the lead. The Fitz deal was one of the few in which Terry was hornswoggled. Baker and cash for his dependable veteran and Baker wound up with Jersey City. Luke Hamlin was offered to the Glants this season for $50,000, but they turned him down. Luke would have won the pennant for

But, after all, we've had enough ennants in New York in recent years, and I'm one of those bignearted guys with no money invested in either team, who is in favor of giving some other clubs crack at the world series dough, particularly that sterling baseball town, Boston, which is long
