[International News Service Sports Writer] CHICAGO-(INS)-The Hon. A. B. Chandler, governor of Kentucky, carry into "Bo" McMfllin's suite, high up in a Columbus hotel,

Saturday morning.
"Hyah, Arsenic." shouted the Hon. A. B., catching sight of Mc-Millin. "Hello, Hammerhead," as he saw "Red" Roberts back in a corner. "How's it, Flash," to Tex Covington.

"Come on in 'scram' and shut the door," rolled three voices. It was the old Centre college boys getting together. There's a great among those old Centre -wjjp | college boys, who played for Uncle Charlie Moran on the Praying Colonels. "Happy" Chandler play-ed at Transylvania but he played often enough against the Colonels to be adopted as one of their own. Any time you get three or four old Centre men together and that's whenever Indiana plays any im-portant game, you will be taken back 18 years to when the Praying New Battery, Beat Colonels were the most romantic colorful team in football. And when the old Centre boys get together they replay the famous
