News and Programs

M. P. Wamboldt, above, producer of the NBC "Public Hero Number One" series, originated the idea of presenting the policeman's side of crime stories in radio dramatizations. Until he wrote "Truth Serum" for an NBC coast-to-coast broadcast in 1931. radio crime dramas had glorified the criminal.

Literary is the word for CBS personalities these days. Max Wylie, director of the script department, is just completing a book on "Radio Writing" and Gabriel Heatter, of "We, the People," is working on a volume on the techniques of enunciation. David Victor, who's the author of the "Her Honor, Nancy James" scripts, announces that the returns from his recent "Father's Doing Nicely," a book lampooning a father's trials while his child being born, has more than paid the doctor's bills for the arrival of his latest. The ability of Mary Margaret McBride, CBS's 'eminine air columnist, to ad lib served her in good stead last week. While being fitted for glasses, drops were put in her eyes and, unable to see, she had to do her air stint entirely impromptu. Latest addition to Kate Smith's menage is a cocker spaniel, presented by Betty Garde, who appears almost every week in the dramatic presentation on Kate's Variety hour.

Martin Wolfson, director of plays for the WPA theater projects, has joined the cast of "The Goldbergs."

ng for the title as Hollywood's ousiest man. In addition to his CBS broadcasts, he is conferring with producers and writers on his next picture, which will be a dramatic record of his more than 25 years in show business.

EUROPE FROM 1918 TO 1938 VI-The League of Nations

The hope of ending war for all time has been held by great and good men and women. This hope still lasts, and there may be growing reason for it in time to come. The world knows better than be-fore how foolish and fearful war

Woodrow Wilson tried his best to find a way to keep war from breaking out in the future. He did not invent the idea of the League of Nations, but he became the most powerful leader in bringing it about.
