Depict Air's History Today, "This Is Radio" Shows Broadcast's Rise

The history of radio forms the

NBC script division as a salute to the 160 affiliated stations of the two NBC coast-to-coast networks.

Dozens of Free Theater Tickets! Want a Prize? Then

Pick 10 Best Movies What were the 10 best movies of 1938? And of those which

Through the cooperation of the Orpheum, Capitol, Madison, Parkway, and Strand theaters, The State Journal offers dozens of free theater tickets to readers for their choices and their All you have to do is this:

... one of the most successful seasons ...

Select the 10 pictures you think were the best presented in 1938, listing them in order of your preference, and write a letter of NOT MORE than 100 words telling why you gave your No. 1 choice that position.

Then mail your list so it will reach The State Journal before noon on Wednesday, Dec. 14.

All lists will be tabulated, with pictures scored according to their position. Then one prize will be given to the person whose list most closely approximates the combined choices of all contestants. Another will be given to the person who writes the best 100-word letter.

The prize for the best list will be one pass for two persons, good once on each change of program at the Orpheum theater, exclusive of stage shows, for one month. The prize for the best letter will be one pass for two persons, good once on each change of program for five times at the Other prizes will be one-month passes for two at the Strand, Parkway, and Madison (exclusive of stage shows.)

And not only that—
But exactly 125 single tickets—five for each theater—will be

Each contestant will be limited to one list and anyone may compete except employes of Madison newspapers, Madison theaters, and members of their families.
